PREAMBLE

This Agreement is effective June 1, 2016 – May 31, 2020 between AMETEK Measurement and Power System Division, Sensors and Fluid Management Systems Business Unit, hereinafter called "Employer" or "Company" and Local 201 of the IUE-CWA (AFL-CIO), hereinafter referred to as the "Union". This Labor Agreement is applicable to employees hired on or after June 1, 2016.

ARTICLE 1 UNION RECOGNITION

A. Recognition

The Company agrees to recognize the Union and will bargain with the Union as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent with respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment and other conditions of employment for those groups of employees which the National Labor Relations Board has certified as the bargaining unit at the Wilmington, MA location of AMETEK Measurement and Power Systems Division, Sensors and Fluid Management Systems Business Unit.

B. Accretion & Successor

The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon the Union and the Company and its successors and assigns all of the terms and obligations herein contained shall not be affected or changed in any respect by the consolidation, merger, sale, transfer or assignment of the Company or any or all of its property, or affected or changed in any respect by any change in the legal status, ownership, or management of the Company.

C. New Plant Construction

This agreement applies to any plant newly constructed and operated by AMETEK Measurement and Power Systems Division, Sensors and Fluid Management Systems Business Unit, a subsidiary of AMETEK, Inc., after the effective date of this Agreement, within a radius of twenty-five (25) miles from Wilmington, MA for the purpose of manufacturing any article, or parts thereof, of the type of character manufactured in the existing plant in Wilmington, MA.

ARTICLE 2 UNION SECURITY

- A. All employees who are members of the Union in good standing in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws of the Union as of the date of this agreement or who become members of the Union following said date shall, as a condition of employment, remain members of the Union in good standing by paying the periodic dues and initiation fees is made.
- B. All present employees who are not members of the Union and all individuals hired after the effective date of the Agreement shall, on the thirtieth (30th) day following employment, as a condition of employment, either become and remain members of the Union in good standing by paying uniformly required payment of an amount equal to the periodic dues and initiation fees, or, in lieu of such Union membership, pay to the Union an equivalent service charge.
- C. The Company payroll will deduct from the earnings payable to such employee on a bi-weekly basis the a) monthly dues (or the equivalent service charge) b) the voluntary election for COPE for the employee's membership in the Union. All such deductions shall remit to the Union.

Individual authorizations executed after the effective day of this Agreement shall be signed cards in the form agreed to by the Company and the Union.

ARTICLE 3
MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Subject to limitations provided by the Contract and labor law, the Company shall have the right to make all decisions essential to the conduct of the business. The list of Management Rights set forth below is by way of example and not by way of limitation. The Company shall have the right to manage the plant; to schedule the hours of work; to determine a reasonable work pace and reasonable performance levels; to establish, change, combine, or abolish job classifications and the job content of any classification; to establish, modify or change work schedules or standards; and the right to determine the size of the work force; including the right to select, hire, promote, transfer, demote, layoff for lack of work or other causes; to establish reasonable rules of conduct, discipline for just cause; and to determine training policy in accordance with standards established or to be established by the Company. The Company shall have the right to determine production processes, methods, and techniques, including the introduction of new or changed production, maintenance, service, or distribution methods or facilities, the determination of the need for and the layout of machinery, and the use of equipment or materials. The Company shall have the right to determine the number, location and types of plants, including the right to discontinue, temporarily or permanently, in whole or in part, the conduct of its business and operations in Wilmington, MA.

ARTICLE 4
DRUG AND ALCOHOL POLICY

- A. All bargaining unit employees are included in the list of “safety sensitive” positions as defined by the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and are subject to FAA/DOT regulated pre-employment, incident-based, and random testing. Any bargaining unit employee who tests positive for drugs or alcohol under our FAA drug and alcohol testing program will be terminated immediately, except as noted in paragraph B.
- B. The Company maintains a zero tolerance drug and alcohol policy. Any employee, who has not self-disclosed a drug and/or alcohol problem and is not actively enrolled in the EAP program, and then tests positive (or refuses to take the alcohol or drug test) will be immediately terminated.
- C. Any employee who receives negative test results will not suffer lost wages or benefits.
- D. After voluntary disclosure, the employee must comply with all EAP criteria. Employees enrolled in the Company’s EAP program, must also execute the Company’s Last Clear Chance Agreement.
- E. In certain circumstances, and solely at the Company’s discretion, the Company may allow the employee (not presently enrolled in EAP) who tests positive for alcohol or drugs (or refuses to take a test) may receive the opportunity for a one time Last Clear Chance Agreement. The Company’s decision whether to allow the employee the opportunity to execute a Last Clear Chance Agreement is not grievable.

ARTICLE 5
DISCRIMINATION AND COERCION

- A. Ametek prohibits discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment with respect to hiring or other conditions of employment, on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age or veteran status or union membership or status. Equal Employment Opportunity is a legal, social and economic necessity for the Company. The Company shall honor legitimate ADA requests and not discriminate against any employee due to physical handicap or disability. The policy extends to recruiting, hiring, Company-sponsored training, promotions, compensation, benefits, transfer, layoff, return from layoff, education, tuition assistance, and social and recreational programs.

- B. No member of the Union or its agents shall intimidate or coerce any employee, nor solicit members or funds in the plant during working hours.
- C. The Company will not interfere with or discriminate against any employee covered by this Agreement because of membership in or legitimate activity on behalf of the Union.

ARTICLE 6
HEALTH & SAFETY

- A. General
The Company will comply fully with OSHA requirements and provide systematic safety inspections, safety devices, guards, and medical service to minimize accidents and health hazards on its premises.
- B. Health and Safety
 - 1. Health and Safety Committee will be established consisting of representatives of the Company and two (2) members designated by the Union to discuss mutual safety issues and address employee safety concerns as appropriate. Bargaining unit employees who are members of the Safety Committee will be paid to attend safety meetings, safety tours and accident investigations.
 - 2. With prior notice, the Company will permit access to the plant by the Union's Health and Safety Director during normal business hours for purposes of reviewing specific health or safety concerns.
 - 3. Requests for access outlining specific areas of concern should be directed to the Company's Plant Director or Director of Human Resources at least twenty four (24) hours prior to the requested visit date unless emergency conditions exist. Such visits should not exceed two (2) per year unless emergency conditions arise where the parties jointly feel another visit would be beneficial.
 - 4. Employees and union stewards should raise safety concerns with the appropriate supervisor. It is understood that the employee does not have to work on an assignment they consider unsafe until a decision is made by the person so designated by management. This procedure is not to be used as a means to escape an unpleasant work assignment.

ARTICLE 7
LEAVE OF ABSENCE RULES

- A. Return to Work From Illness/Injury
 - 1. While absent from work as a result of illness or injury, the employee must provide the Company a written monthly update including their current medical status and expected return to work date on a form supplied by the Company's third party carrier. Failure to comply with this requirement will result in a loss of continuity of service and may result in termination.
 - 2. Prior to returning to work from illness or injury, employees must provide a certification of recovery signed by their physician on a form supplied by the Company. After receiving this certification of recovery form, the Company reserves the right to require the employee to be examined by the Company physician for a second medical opinion.

3. Disputes on eligibility to return to work will be referred to a neutral third party physician.
4. Any additional expenses associated with medical opinions are at the Company expense. Employees who provide a certification of recovery form and who are denied their return; in addition, if a final resolution results in a decision favorable to the employee, the employee shall receive full back pay to the date of the initial medical clearance.
5. Employees returning to work after an absence in excess of sixty (60) days will be required to perform his/her job duties satisfactorily for a minimum of sixty (60) days prior to being eligible for vacation, sick, or personal time, provided however that, the Company may authorize use of personal/sick or vacation time based on special personal circumstances. This shall not in any case result in the unintended loss of such unused and accrued time. The Company will have the option to pay compensation in lieu of unintended lost time.
6. Any employee unable to perform his or her assigned work duties satisfactorily despite medical clearance to return to work will revert to the benefit eligibility they had prior to their date of initial medical clearance to return to work.

B. Leave of Absence

1. An unpaid leave of absence is an authorized, temporary period (up to 6 months) away from the workplace to cover unusual circumstances. An unpaid leave of absence applies when the employee's time off from work is not covered under an existing company benefit such as sick leave, paid vacation, paid holidays, or paid time off. Full-time, regular employees, with more than ninety (90) days of service who are regularly scheduled to work thirty (30) or more hours per week, are eligible to request approval for an unpaid leave of absence. Seniority will not be adversely impacted in such cases.
2. An employee's failure to return to work at the expiration of any leave of absence or failure to request and receive approval for an unpaid leave of absence including FMLA extension, may result in disciplinary action up to, and including, dismissal. For military leave of absences, refer to the MPS Employee Handbook.
3. In any event, an employee must return to work within six (6) months from the first day of an authorized leave of absence, including Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA). Employment will be administratively terminated at the end of six (6) months unless the employee has returned to work. However, this shall not impact any of the seniority and return right periods specified in Article 8 (Seniority) regarding individuals returning from paid disability leave, including worker's compensation, or layoff.

ARTICLE 8 SENIORITY

- A. "Seniority" is the total length of protected bargaining unit continuous service at the Company's Wilmington, MA facility of AMETEK Measurement and Power Systems Division, Sensors and Fluid Management Systems Business Unit.

- B. Seniority is a factor in the determination of layoff and recall from layoff, recall, upgrading, shift bids, vacation bids, and vacation time.
- C. Seniority is broken (“lost”) whenever the employee terminates employment as a result of:
 - 1. Voluntary Resignation
 - 2. Retirement
 - 3. Death
 - 4. Discharge
- D. Seniority is broken whenever an employee fails to provide a status report to the Company’s Human Resources Department and the Company’s third party disability provider is not notified on a monthly basis as determined by the third party stating the employee’s anticipated return to work date
- E. If an employee is laid off or out on disability (including worker’s compensation) beyond twelve (12) months, seniority is broken (“lost”) for all service time beyond twelve (12) months.
- F. Any employee rehired after twelve (12) months on layoff or disability but within twenty-four (24) months will be credited seniority for prior seniority plus twelve (12) months.
- G. Employees on disability who return to work with proper medical clearances within twelve (12) months are entitled to their job upon recovery and will be treated as part of the workforce if any subsequent reduction in force is necessary.

ARTICLE 9

WORKING HOURS: STRAIGHT TIME AND OVERTIME

- A. The regular workweek shall consist of forty (40) hours of five (5) eight-hour days, from Monday to Friday inclusive. Computation of the 168 hour work week begins at 12:01 AM Monday.
- B. Overtime
 - 1. Employees will be paid overtime based on the Commonwealth of Massachusetts overtime regulations for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in any given workweek. Currently, that calculation is at the rate of time and one-half for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in any given workweek. Should Massachusetts State Law change, this bargaining unit agreement will automatically update to match the current state regulations. Holidays, sick time, personal time, and vacation time are not included as hours worked for the purposes of calculating overtime pay.
 - 2. Overtime shall be divided as equally as efficient operations permit among the employees who are performing similar work in the group. A record of all overtime worked by will be maintained by the supervisor and will be available for examination by the appropriate union steward upon request.

ARTICLE 10
HOLIDAYS

New Year's Day	Thanksgiving Day
Washington's Birthday	The day after Thanksgiving Day
Patriot's Day	The day before Christmas Day
Memorial Day	Christmas Day
Independence Day	Labor Day
Columbus Day	Floating Holiday

Employees will be paid eight (8) hours holiday pay for each company holiday at his/her current hourly rate of pay. Holidays will not be counted as hours worked for the purpose of calculating overtime. Holidays falling on a Sunday will be recognized on the following Monday. Holidays following on a Saturday will be recognized on the prior Friday. The Company and the Union may, by mutual agreement in writing, substitute a day other than the preceding Friday or following Monday based on operational considerations.

VACATION

- A. On January 1 of each calendar year, bargaining unit employees are eligible for vacation based on their length of service.

Vacation Eligibility:

0 up to 5 years' service	2 weeks (10 days)
5 up to 15 years' service	3 weeks (15 days)
15 up to 25 years' service	4 weeks (20 days)
Greater than 25 years' service	5 weeks (25 days)

- B. Subject to prior approval of the employee's manager, vacations may be scheduled at any time within the calendar year. Employees are required to give the manager a minimum of 2 weeks' notice of a vacation request for a five (5) consecutive days or more vacation. For anything shorter than a week, one day notice is requested for each vacation day. Exceptions will be made in special circumstances at the manager's discretion based on the needs of the business. Vacations may not be scheduled in less than one (1) hour increments.
- C. Employees must use eligible vacation time to cover up to two scheduled plant shutdowns, to a maximum of ten (10). Employees who are limited to two weeks' vacation are authorized to substitute sick/personal time or may choose to utilize five (5) vacation days and five (5) unpaid days. The paid vacation days will be used first followed by unpaid days.
- D. All vacation time must be used in the calendar year. The calendar year is defined as January 1 – December 31. There is no carryover time of vacation from calendar year to calendar year. There are no payouts for time not taken in a calendar year with the exception of termination of employment, Company not allowing an employee to take vacation time due to the needs of the business, or employee returning from disability who is restricted from using time off per the Leave of Absence Return to Work rules. In addition, pay in lieu of is authorized in the event of an active employee's death. Upon termination for any reason, employees with a minimum one year of service are paid out any unused and accrued vacation time on a pro-rated basis based on date of hire and date of termination. Employees who have less than one full year of service will forfeit any unused vacation time.

ARTICLE 12
SICK / PERSONAL TIME

- A. Bargaining unit employees are provided a lump sum of forty (40) hours of sick/personal time (to be used in no less than one (1) hour increments) at the start of each calendar year (January 1). New Hires are paid a prorated number of sick/personal hours based on his/her date of hire.
- B. Unused sick/personal time is not paid out on termination of employment. Unused sick/personal time is not paid out at the end of the year for active employees. Because the sick/personal leave bank is granted as a 40 hour lump sum each January 1, rollover of unused sick/personal time is not permitted as 40 hours is the maximum an employee can use per benefit year.
- C. Sick/personal time shall run concurrently with leave under the Company's FMLA, Parental Leave, Domestic Violence Leave, or other leave of absence policies. Employees may elect to use earned sick/personal time to receive pay for the waiting period under STD and LTD.
- D. Earned unused sick/personal time is not rolled over at the end of the calendar year nor cashed out upon termination.

ARTICLE 13
OTHER PAID TIME OFF

A. Jury Duty

An employee called for service as a juror will be paid the difference between the fee they receive for such service and the amount of straight-time earnings lost by reason of such service, up to a limit of eight (8) hours per day and forty (40) hours per week. Similar differential pay will be granted to an employee who loses time from work because of their appearance in court pursuant to proper subpoena, except when the employee is either a plaintiff, defendant, or other party to the court proceeding.

B. Bereavement

- 1. Bereavement leave will be available to allow the employee to attend the funeral and make necessary arrangements associated with death of a family member. These arrangements include absence from work due to the death, funeral, or matters of estate.
- 2. For a death of a spouse, child, stepchild, foster child (living in the employee's home), parent, stepparent, stepparent-in-law, brother, sister, mother-in-law, father-in-law, stepbrother, or stepsister, employee will be compensated straight time earnings for the time lost for up to five (5) days for each such absence and up to eight (8) hours per day. For a death of grandchild, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandparent, great-grandparent, grand-parent-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law, an employee will be compensated straight time earnings for the time lost for up to three (3) days for each such absence and up to eight (8) hours per day.
- 3. Bereavement leave will not count as time worked toward overtime calculations for hourly employees.

ARTICLE 14
MILITARY PAY DIFFERENTIAL

- A. The Company strongly supports those bargaining unit members who are veterans or serving in the active reserves of our armed forces. The company complies fully with USERRA and Massachusetts rights for military personnel. No veteran will be adversely affected in their employment rights as a result of their military service.
- B. Military pay differential shall be granted to employees having fifty-two (52) or more weeks of continuous service who enter the Armed Forces for active military duty. This differential applies only to employees who have been activated by their reserve or guard unit while actively at work (or who are receiving pay while absent) and who enter service within thirty (30) days. Military duty pay differential shall continue for a maximum of fifty-six (56) days of military duty.

ARTICLE 15
UNION STEWARDS

Union Stewards will be paid by the Company at their currently hourly rates of pay while engaged in Union activity on the Company premises. Union Stewards are limited to one (1) hour per week to be engaged in Union activities. During the grievance process, Union Stewards are limited to three (3) hours per week to be engaged in Union activities. During contract negotiations, Union Stewards are expected to be present for all contract meetings and will not have time limitations during negotiations. These union activities will include the grievance process at any step in the grievance process as well as during contract negotiations. The Company will only compensate Union Stewards for hours worked on grievances and contract negotiations that are held on regularly scheduled workdays and hours. If, by mutual written consent, the Company and the Union wish to extend these days or working hours, they may do so and will pay overtime per the regular overtime provisions if the hours extend beyond forty (40) total weekly hours. The Union is limited to two (2) Union Stewards at any time. Stewards will promptly notify his/her supervisor whenever they will be working on Union business and are required to schedule Union business at the courtesy of the supervisor whenever possible.

ARTICLE 16
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- A. Grievances may be filed by an employee or group of employees, a Steward or the Union. An earnest effort shall be made to settle any and all differences arising between the Company and the Union as to the interpretation or application of the terms and provisions of this Agreement. The following procedure is to be used for all such differences:
 - 1. First Step:
 - a) Employee(s) having a grievance shall present it to their steward. The steward and the employee or employees affected shall discuss the grievance with the supervisor within fifteen (15) working days of knowledge of the occurrence, and the supervisor will provide a written response within five (5) working days.
 - 2. Second Step:
 - b) If a satisfactory settlement is not reached at First Step, a meeting shall be held between the union steward and the Plant Director and/or Director of Human Resources to discuss the grievance. Within five (5) working days after the meeting, management will make a decision in writing.
 - 3. Third Step:
 - c) If a satisfactory settlement of the grievance is not reached at Second Step, the grievance committee and Business Agent or designated representative shall meet within ten (10) working days with the Plant Director and/or Director of Human Resources or designee, who will make a decision within five (5) working days. If a satisfactory settlement is not reached, arbitration may be the result.

- B. The time elements of the grievance and arbitration procedures shall exclude Saturdays, Sundays and holidays and may be extended by mutual consent of the parties.
- C. Either party to this Agreement will be permitted to call employee witnesses and submit evidence, and relevant Company employee work records will be made available at any time of the conferences held to process grievances for the purpose of the parties substantiating their respective claims. A record of grievances and the disposition thereof shall be kept and sufficient copies will be made available to the parties. The Company or the Union has the right to request a meeting on a timely basis to discuss disciplinary actions based upon cumulative warnings or performance issues prior to the action being imposed upon the employee.
- D. Prior to the arbitration process, the parties may, through mutual agreement engage the services of a professional mediator to act in a manner to resolve the grievance. The mediator shall work with both parties in an attempt to resolve the outstanding grievance. If the mediator is unable to bring the parties to resolution, the mediator shall issue a recommendation to settle the grievance. Such recommendation shall be non-binding upon the parties and cannot be used by either party in the arbitration process. Discharge cases will be excluded from the mediation process. The cost of the mediator will be shared equally by both parties.

ARTICLE 17 ARBITRATION

- A. All discipline imposed by the Company up to and including discharge will be based on just cause. During the term of this Agreement, the Union shall have the right to refer to the impartial arbitrator any difference arising after the effective date of this Agreement involving any specific term or provision of the Agreement which has not been satisfactorily adjusted by means of the steps established in the grievance procedure section. Such notification of intent to arbitrate must be sent to the Company within thirty (30) days of the Company's decision at the third step of the grievance procedure.
- B. A request for arbitration will state the nature of the dispute and the remedy requested. A copy of this request will be sent to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) or American Arbitration Association based on agreement between the parties, who will provide a list of arbitrators to the parties. If unable to agree upon an arbitrator, the parties will strike names from the list until an arbitrator is determined.
- C. The decision of the arbitrator shall be rendered within thirty (30) days of the hearing (within two (2) weeks if the case involves an employee discharge) and is final and binding upon both parties. These time limits may be extended by mutual agreement.
- D. If either party desires to use the services of an attorney at an arbitration hearing, it shall give the other party five (5) days' notice of such intent.
- E. Transcripts of arbitration hearings shall only be made by mutual agreement, and the cost of same shall be borne by the party requesting such transcript.
- F. Compensation and proper expenses of the arbitrator shall be agreed upon by the parties, and each of the parties shall be responsible for payment of one-half (1/2) of the arbitrator's compensation and expenses.

- G. No more than one grievance may be submitted to an arbitrator for determination at one time unless mutual written agreement from the parties is obtained for the submission of mutual grievances to the same arbitrator.
- H. The Company and the Union agree that should an employee appeal a grievance denied by the grievance committee, the Company will be promptly notified of the appeal and the timeliness of the grievance will be extended pending the outcome of the appeal.
- I. Probationary employees are not covered under the arbitration provisions of this Agreement until completion of six (6) month probationary period from date of hire. Discipline or termination of probationary employees is at the discretion of the Company.

ARTICLE 18
NO STRIKES AND NO LOCKOUTS

- A. There shall not be any strike, cessation of work, slowdown, picketing or other interference or interruption of the Company's business by bargaining unit members during the term of this Agreement. An employee who violates the foregoing provision shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.
- B. There shall not be any lockout by the Company during the term of this Agreement.
- C. The Union will not oppose or seek to prevent the Company from obtaining appropriate injunctive relief or other equitable relief from a court or an appropriate administrative agency should any of the events occur.

ARTICLE 19
NOTIFICATIONS AND PUBLICITY FOR UNION

- A. The Company will provide the Stewards with a Bulletin Board for Official Union postings. The company agrees to notify the Union as soon as possible of important items that may impact bargaining union employees, which may or may not be covered items under the agreement.
- B. The Company will provide on a regular basis an updated list of employees with name, home address, service/seniority date, rate of pay, and job classification; and provide advance notice of any job openings, job postings, lack of works, or work volume increases or decreases.

ARTICLE 20
REDUCTION IN FORCE

- A. A reduction in force procedure will be by job classification. Demonstrated job performance, seniority, written performance evaluations and work history will be factors taken into consideration in the determination of employees that are reduced.
- B. Employees laid off, except those on probation, are eligible for severance pay based on length of service; one (1) week of severance pay per full year of service with a minimum of four (4) weeks' severance pay. The maximum a bargaining unit employee can receive is thirty (30) weeks' severance. Severance pay will be equal to forty (40) hours pay at employee's current hourly rate of pay per eligible severance week.
- C. Employees laid off are eligible for the COBRA stipend supplement starting the first of the month following termination date for the length of severance eligibility.

- D. Employees laid off are added to the twelve (12) month Recall List. Employees will be recalled based on the criteria identified above in paragraph A.

ARTICLE 21
JOB POSTINGS

Interested present bargaining unit employees are considered first for posted job openings. Skill, job performance ratings, work history, seniority, and experience are taken into account in making the final selection. Bargaining unit employees may self-nominate. Postings shall remain open for a minimum of five (5) days. All bargaining unit employees who apply shall be considered, interviewed, and evaluated for the position. If no suitable internal candidates exist, external candidates will be sought to fill the position.

ARTICLE 22
WORK BY EXCLUDED PERSONS / OUTSOURCING

- A. In general, any assembly or test of a product in production shall be performed by the bargaining unit members. This includes Environmental Stress Screening (ESS) or production hardware. However, non-production engineering evaluation units may be assembled and tested by non-union personnel. Design Assurance Test (DAT) and Qualification Test units, which represent first hardware units during development, may be built by either Engineering or Union employees, whichever is more appropriate. If a product encounters a failure that requires troubleshooting, Engineering may conduct troubleshooting, failure investigation, or testing to determine the source of failure.
- B. Notice Requirements
If temporary outsourcing/subcontracting for certain limited circumstances is required to complete customer work in a timely fashion, the Company will notify the Union a minimum of 24 hours prior to outsourcing. Subcontracting is authorized upon completion of the following:
 - a.) The required work cannot be completed in a timely fashion
 - b.) The Union has been consulted on the need for outsourcing a minimum of 24 hours prior to the event
 - c.) OT has been offered to the bargaining unit members
 - d.) The outsourcing does not result in any reduction in members of the bargaining unit”
- C. Work by Excluded Persons
The Company agrees that Wilmington employees not covered by this Agreement shall not perform work covered under bargaining unit classifications unless in emergency situations where support of AMETEK non-bargaining unit employees is required to support business objectives. Work by non-union AMETEK employees will only be allowed and authorized if:
 - a.) The required work cannot be completed in a timely fashion
 - b.) The Union has been consulted on the need for non-bargaining unit work prior to the event
 - c.) OT has been offered to the bargaining unit members
 - d.) The outsourcing does not result in any reduction in members of the bargaining unit

BENEFITS

Bargaining unit employees will participate in the standard AMEFlex Health and Welfare plans, to include: medical, dental, vision, life insurance, disability insurance, spousal/child life insurance, and 401(k). Employees will pay bi-weekly contributions to these plans based on annual established rates by the Corporate office. Rates are subject to change each January 1 and employees will pay the corresponding rates as indicated by the Corporate Benefits department at the same rate as non-represented employees. For 2016, the rates are as follows:

GENERAL

A. Responsibility of the Parties

1. The Company recognizes that it is the responsibility of the Union to represent the employees effectively and fairly.
2. Subject only to any limitations stated in this Agreement, or in any other agreement between the Company and the Union, the Union recognizes that the Company retains the exclusive right to manage its business, including (but not limited to) the right to determine the methods and means by which its operations are to be carried on, to direct the work force, and to conduct its operations in a safe and effective manner.
3. This article does not modify or limit the rights of the parties, or of the employees, under any other provisions of this Agreement or under any other agreement between the Company and Union, nor will it operate to deprive employees of any wage or other benefits to which they have been or will become entitled by virtue of an existing or future agreement between the Company and the Union.

B. Issues of General Application

This Agreement is intended to be and shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and shall be in full settlement of all issues including wages, benefits and retirement plans as negotiated which were the subject of good faith collective bargaining between the Company and Union in 2016. Consequently, it is agreed that none of the issues shall be subject to collective bargaining during the term of this Agreement, and there shall be no strike or lockout in connection with any such issue or issues; provided, however, that this provision should not be construed to limit or modify the rights of the parties.

C. Duration of Agreement

This Agreement shall become effective on June 1, 2016, and shall remain in full force and effect to and including May 31, 2020, and thereafter for successive yearly periods unless written notice is given in writing either by the Company or by the Union to the other, not less than sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of any such period, of its desire to modify, amend, or terminate this Agreement.

D. Notices

All notices given under the provisions of this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be sufficient if sent by mail addressed, if to the Union, to Local 201, IUE-CWA(AFL-CIO) 112 Exchange Street, Lynn Massachusetts 01905-1435, or to such other address the Union shall furnish the Company in writing; and if to the Company, to AMETEK Measurement and Power Systems Division, a subsidiary of AMETEK, Inc., 50 Fordham Road, Wilmington, Massachusetts 01887, or to such other address the Company shall furnish the Union in writing.
